

2022

Where do we go from here?

2021

December 2021: LEO data has now contributed to over 54 publications

2020

December 2020: LEO's 2nd era entitled 'LEO 2.0' has been approved & funded

June 2020: 70,000 vials of blood have been stored for the study

May 2020: End of LEO's 1st era with a total of 7,781 NHL patients enrolled

2019

December 2019: LEO data has now contributed to over 36 publications

July 2019: Over 100 employees across the country contribute to the 2018

May 2018: Our website leocohort.org went live

March 2018: 5,000 patients have been consented to the study

2017

November 2017: 4,000 patients have been consented to the study

June 2017: The 1st electronic questionnaire was completed

2016

September 2016: Many sites start e-consenting patients via phone calls & emails

May 2016: 1,000 patients have been consented to the 2015

November 2015: All 8 sites are actively consenting patients to LEO

July 2015: LEO (Lymphoma Epidemiology of Outcomes) was fully funded & the 1st patient was enrolled

2002

September 2002: LEO's predecessor MER (Molecular Epidemiology Resource) was created